GALA DINNER AT PMYC POOL

PORTO MONTENEGRO YACHT POOL

Set at one of the largest marinas in the Adriatic sea, the chic Porto Montenegro Yacht Club combines an infinity pool, a restaurant, rooftop restaurant and bar De Gustibus, urban sandy beach and a nightclub.

Its star attraction and most sought after event venue is the PMYC infinity pool - spanning for overwhelming 64 meters and featuring a three meter high sculpture entitled “8 Possibilities”. For larger groups up to 350 guests seated, the contemporary venue offers stunning views over the marina and the bay beyond.

COCKTAILS IN FRONT OF A SUBMARINE

NAVAL HERITAGE MUSEUM

Showing respect to the Adriatic's rich maritime tradition, the Naval heritage museum displays artefacts from the ex-Yugoslav naval base and provides a stunning venue for gala dinners, product launches, parties and receptions.

The beautifully restored Austro-Hungarian sawmill with original beams and fittings from the turn of the century spans across two levels in total of 1264 sqm.

Standing across the museum, the Yugoslav navy submarine Hero offers a perfect backdrop for cocktails, award ceremonies and gala dinners for up to 120 guests seating.

BUDVA CITADELA

Standing at the highest point of the charming old town, the Budva citadel offers stunning views over the Adriatic sea and the buzzing marbled streets. The medieval castle of Budva features a restaurant, library full of rare tomes and maps as well as an open air terrace. Suitable for receptions, gala dinners, conferences and team building events, the terrace seats 350 guests. The restaurant spans over three floors with the total of 230 seats.

STANDING OVATIONS

ENTERTAINMENT IN MONTENEGRO

Still a relatively undiscovered country, Montenegrin hosts excel in proudly sharing our customs and traditions. Imagine a traditional folklore performance in the midst of a national park, a Montenegrin opera singer surprising incentive travelers in a church or museum or string quartet performing with the view of the Adriatic sea. Add the beat to your event with DJs, tango dancers or fiercely proud trumpeters.

"There are not enough DMC 's I feel in the world that have the values of Dijana and her team. We recently organised an event for MAN Truck and Bus from the UK. Everything was just so professional from the enquiry stage to the final debrief. We couldn't have had a better partner. Dijana is just sensational. Nothing is too much trouble for her. All her team just go 'above and beyond'. With any recognition programme, you have to make it an experience people can't do themselves if they were away on a holiday. Dijana does this as a matter of course. Their knowledge and passion is sensational. I can't wait to come back to their country and organise another event for our clients. "
